Entergy Awards $275,000 in Funds to Local Responders Begins Accepting Applications for Second Round of Awards

Buchanan, NY – Entergy today announced grant awards totaling $275,000 to 15 local organizations as part of the company’s new Safety Responders Fund program. The grant program is designed to help fund training and equipment purchases for first responders in the vicinity of Indian Point Energy Center.

“Indian Point works closely with many first responder organizations throughout our community,” said Joe Pollock, Vice President of Indian Point Energy Center. “This new grant program is intended to support those who put their lives on the line to help their community. We are proud to help those whose job it is to help others.”

The following organizations will receive funding in this round of grant announcements.

- Animal Response Team of Rockland County
- Buchanan Engine Company #1
- Cortlandt Community Volunteer Ambulance Corps
- Cortlandt Engine Company #1
- Mohegan Volunteer Fire Association
- Montrose Fire District
- Orange County Department of Emergency Services

- Putnam County Bureau of Emergency Services
- Rockland County Emergency Medical Service
- Rockland County Sheriff's Department
- Town of Cortlandt
- Town of Highlands Police Department
- Village of Ossining Police Department
- Westchester Institute for Human Development
- Yorktown Police Department

The above organizations have been notified of these grant awards.

The Safety Responders Fund program accepts applications twice a year. The awards announced today constitute the first round. Applications for the second round will be accepted from December 7 through January 31, 2010. Awards for the second round will be announced in the first half of 2010.
